Announcements for Sunday, November 8, 2026

A NEW SECTION FOR THE QUARTERLY MAGAZINE

A new section has been added to our Quarterly Magazine “DIALOGUE.” It is “What The Fellowship Means To Me.” I have witnessed a number of our members express their gratitude for actions and events that have had a profound and meaningful impact on their lives. These can be sermons that were transformative leading to further contemplation; compassionate care experiences during times of hardships; spiritual uplifting from activities that are available to members and friends, such as Sacred Circles, meditation groups; or meaningful justice actions. The magazine comes out the first week of January, April, July and October. The deadline for submittals is 15th day of the preceding months. If you have one such experience, please send me a paragraph, about 150 words and if you would like to, please include a photo of yourself to me at: Ihimelblau@gmail.com. Irv Himelblau. Editor of the “DIALOGUE’ magazine

The upper parking lot pathway paving will be completed between November 23rd-27th, when Sandy Hill is on fall break. Until then, the center of the path has been elevated to meet the required slope, creating a steep slope on either side. Please exercise caution when utilizing that pathway. There are cones along the path to address the issue.

Flowers in Patio Area

Every week we get flowers from Trader Joes that will be thrown out if they are not taken. Please take some flowers to enjoy!

Read a Memoir with 2nd Monday Book Club

November 9th; 6:30-8:15pm; Palmer Library

Feel free to come and introduce yourself to our group -- anyone who has read the book is welcome! We will be discussing: Blessings and Disasters: A Story of Alabama by Alexis Okeowo (2025). From the publisher: "In this perspective-shifting work that is both an intimate memoir and a journalistic triumph, Okeowo investigates her life, other Alabamians’ lives, and the state’s lesser-known histories to examine why Alabama has been the stage for the most extreme results of the American experiment." Question or comment? Send an email to bookclub@uufsd.org or call/text Cathy Leach-Phillips at 650 224-1974.

We have room for 20 energetic and generous, individuals, age 11 and older, who are willing to spend a little “sweat equity” at Camp. You’ll leave knowing your efforts are appreciated by the staff and will ensure that future campers have a safe and wonderful experience at Camp. Camp will provide meals for the weekend. Weather can be variable, so dress in layers and work at your own speed. Wear enclosed shoes and old clothing. Some projects we may work on include:Fire clearance (raking, picking up downed branches), splitting firewood and stacking wood near the lodge, repairing benches and picnic tables, packing away patio and pool furniture, cleaning light fixtures throughout camp, erosion control issues, and deep cleaning cabins

Thanksgiving Day Dinner

November 26th; 1-4pm; Founders Hall + Core Area

Thanksgiving is more than just a holiday; it is a cherished tradition rooted in gratitude, reflection, and community. As families gather, the true meaning of Thanksgiving extends beyond feasts and festivities. It is a day to pause, appreciate life’s blessings, and connect with loved ones. Americans generally believe their Thanksgiving is modeled on the 1621 harvest feast shared by English colonists and the Wampanoag people. We are celebrating Thanksgiving at 1:00. UUFSD will celebrate Thanksgiving Dinner, again this year, with lots of good food. Turkeys provided, so please bring your favorite dish, Vegan, Vegetarian, vegetable, dessert and drink to share with family and friends. If you forget to sign up. No problem, we always have room.

Children can play and adults can connect with other parents. Feel free to invite friends, who are welcome to come to service or just arrive for the picnic. We look forward to joining in community!

Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote eight Principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides.

1) The inherent worth and dignity of every person;

2) Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;

3) Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;

4) A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

5) The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;

6) The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;

7) Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part;

8) Journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse and multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.
